Tambo del Inka, Sacred Valley Luxury Hotel

5 nights

This newly opened hotel and spa is a perfect base for exploring the Sacred Valley and the Inca Trail. Situated between Cusco and the sacred Machu Picchu in the small village of Urubamba this peaceful area is in many ways untouched by the modern world retaining much of its traditional Peruvian identity.

There are many outdoor activities available from the hotel, including kayaking on Andean lakes, off-roading or mountain biking in the surrounding mountains and even bird watching expeditions.

This is one of the best luxury hotels in Peru today. The attention to detail is perfect from the flawless service to the impressive spa which includes exotic 'Inca' treatments using products like coca leaves and even gold!

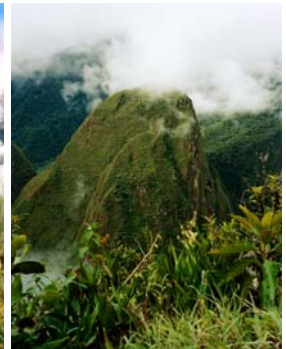

There is a lot to explore in this area with several fascinating Inca ruins and ancient citadels, leading up to of course the world famous Machu Picchu, which is only a half hour's train ride from the hotel's private train station. You will have a day exploring the ruins themselves with your own private guide, with time to take side hikes as well, up the Inca trail to the sun gate or perhaps a strenuous climb to the top of Huayna Picchu for an awe-inspiring Condor's eye view of Machu Picchu.

You will then return to the railway station for the stunning journey back down to your hotel in the Sacred Valley.

Breakfast included

Private guided tour of Machu Picchu

All guiding services, picnic and hiking equipment

Day 6

Transfer to Cusco for your flight to Juliaca.

Day 6	Flight: Cusco (CUZ) – Juliaca (JUL)
	Private transfer by land rover across the altiplano and then a speedboat directly to your hotel in a secluded peninsula

Titilaka, on the shore of Lake Titicaca

5 nights

Lake Titicaca, the world's highest navigable lake, straddles the border of Bolivia and Peru at 3,830m above sea level. The impressive snow-capped Andes, often cloaked in an ethereal mist, act as a spectacular backdrop against the electric blue waters.

This luxury boutique hotel is set in a peaceful location on a private peninsula, 5 kilometers from Puno. Your stay is all-inclusive including excursions to visit some of the lake's fascinating islands and their unique cultures, such as the famous floating reed islands of Uros or stunning Taquile, where a tough climb to the top of the island is rewarded with unforgettable views for miles over the glistening azure waters of the lake. The hotel also has its own private sailing boat and canoes, a great way to soak up the fresh Andean air and explore the lake's serene waters.

All meals and activities included

Day 11	Transfer to Cusco for your flight to Juliaca.

Day 11	Flight: Julica (JUL) – Arequipa (AQP)
	Private transfer to your luxury hotel at Colca Canyon.

Colca Canyon Luxury Hotel

5 nights

One of Peru's natural wonders and the world's deepest canyon, the Colca Canyon is a truly breathtaking sight that exceeds expectations. The area is still inhabited by various Andean cultures such as the Collaguas and Cabanas, is home to hot springs, numerous archeological sights and lies near the most distant source of the Amazon River.

The accommodation is made up of cosy, quiet and understated luxury cabins, spectacularly located high in the Andes possessing superb views of the surrounding mountains and Inca terraces. As well as horse treks, there are numerous activities including yoga, Spanish and Quechua classes, cycling and Alpaca feeding! Children can also catch their own dinner in the trout pond and have free use of the telescope to stargaze in the clear night sky.

Both the magnificent Andean Condor and the Giant Colibri birds can be spotted regularly from various points in the Canyon and there is an excursion to Condor Cross, the best overlook from which to observe these graceful creatures.

Full board accommodation

All activities included

Condor Spotting Trip

Day 15	Transfer to Arequipa Airport for your flight to Lima and home.
